Awarded to JOHN DONOVAN, R.N.

John Donovan, Chief Boatman in charge of the Old Head Coast Guard Station, Kinsale, received the Albert Medal, 2nd Class.

∴ The Italian barque "Thetis," in distress in Courtmacsherry Bay, Ireland.

The "Thetis" of 324 tons, with a crew of 11 persons, became embayed in Courtmacsherry Bay during a gale on November 30th, 1866. She had anchored in a dangerous position surrounded by reefs, and had cut away her masts when she was observed by the Coast Guard and Fishermen on shore.

John Donovan endeavoured to prevail upon the fishermen who lined the shore to the number of about 200, to launch one of their boats, well adapted for the purpose of rendering assistance, but they refused.

Donovan then caused the Coast Guard Galley to be dragged across the land, a distance of about 1½ miles, and lowered over a perpendicular cliff, about 50ft. in height. When this was done he and four Coast Guard men launched her and proceeded to the vessel. On getting alongside, the galley was capsized, and partially stove, but by good management her crew, who had life jackets on, got on board the barque, where they remained for some hours expecting that she would part her cables, owing to the heavy sea running, and a gale blowing on shore. She however rode till the weather moderated, when the galley was repaired and the crews of the boat and vessel landed in her.—Extract from the "London Gazette," June 7th, 1867. Pages 3226-7. Board of Trade, Whitehall, June 4th, 1867.

PRICED CATALOGUES

of Coins and Medals.

*A*FTER each sale these catalogues are issued with the prices realised printed in the margin opposite each lot, thus giving at a glance a reliable guide to values.

The final test of value must always be auction prices rather than the figures given in books of reference, for changing times and fashions soon render the latter obsolete and misleading.

On the average we issue twelve Coin and Medal catalogues a year, some of which are usually of sales of important collections. The priced catalogues are posted to subscribers as soon as ready, usually about a week after the date of sale and the subscription is . . . .

ONE GUINEA per annum.
